A Different Kind of Conference

EventCamp East Coast is Not Like Any Other Conference You've Attended!

- ◆ A place to forge meaningful professional relationships that will help you your entire career.
- ◆ An unconference where you have the opportunity to learn whatever you want.
- ◆ A place to tap into all the considerable experience in the room.
- ◆ An exciting "meeting of minds" that generates new outlooks, strategies, tools, and business opportunities.

Why You Should Attend EventCamp East Coast

You and your peers choose topics that are relevant to your jobs and your industry today – not months ago when a committee put together a schedule. During each session, you will learn from the vast experience of your peers and from a synergy of perspectives from across the entire meetings industry. EventCamp East Coast has a proven track record for creating a broad sharing of knowledge and business relationships that are deeper and longer-lasting than any other conference we know.

"One of the most innovative and eye-opening professional experiences I've had. Aside from coming back with lots of new tips and ideas, I easily established triple the number of new contacts, and formed stronger relationships with them, than at any other conference I've been to"
